MANN DEFENDS POLITICAL COURSE

Says Mahone Letters Have Recoiled Against Tucker.

READJUSTER DEMOCRAT

Not Affiliated with G. O. P. When Correspondence Took Place.

Judge Mann Asserts that Letters Were Sprung to Divert Public Mind from Federal Judgeship Charge. Challenges Opponent to Publish Letters Bearing Upon Application to President Roosevelt.

Harrisonburg, Va., July 19 .- Judge William Hodges Mann spoke here to-day in the interest of his candidacy for governor. He vigorously declared that the publication of the Mann-Mahone letters had recoiled to the injury of his opponent, Mr. Tucker, and they were published to divert the people from the evidence showing of his fathers."

Judge Mann challenged Mr. Tucker to publish letters and correspondence bearing upon the Federal judgeship, for which Mr. Tucker was recommended, hinting that something startling may be revealed if the correspondence is given the public. Judge Mann said, in part:

Mahone Regarded as Democrat.

'Among the ill-advised moves on the part of the political advisers of my oppogiven to the press a statement in reference to these letters, in which I reviewed the political history of the period in which those letters were written, and showed, what no well-informed man will attempt to deny, that at that time Gen. Mahon was a Democrat and so regarded by all

"I did not follow Gen. Mahone into the Republican party, and never for one moment considered doing so; but, on the contrary, I always worked and voted with the white people of my county.

When I was re-elected county judge of Republican voted against me in the cauwhile every Democrat, Readjuster. and Funder voted for me when the election came up in the senate and house.

Letters a Boomerang.

"I have had hundreds of letters since tended deliberately to deceive those of the younger generation, who did not know Mahone's career as a Democrat before he In the plea put up by Brewer, he stated purpose of diverting the public mind from evidence that had been produced showing my opponent's recent departure from the house of his fathers.'

"I stated in a speech delivered on July 8 that Mr. Tucker had made an application in the latter part of 1901, during the 'eight years of absence from the house of his fathers,' to a Republican President for a Federal judgeship, and four days later the Mahone letters were produced and paraded under scare headlines and with a great blast of trumpets.

Wants Judgeship; Fails.

"At first it was stated that my charge that I was mistaken in some respects; then Mr. Tucker gave out a statement admitting that the application had been made, saying that it had not been made by him personally, but by 'certain persons." But in neither of these several statements, nor in all of them combined. were all the facts given to the public. It is admitted that my charge is true, but they seem to find some comfort in sonally file the application.

"I did not say that he did; in fact, it is never customary for a candidate for a judgeship to present his own claims. He does not deny, however, that he personally withdrew his indorsements and other papers; and it is very significant, indeed, that he does not name all of his sponsors, and that he does not give to Suffolk, Va., July 19.—A mass meeting the public the reasons that were given by of Nansemond County truckers at Drivasking for his appointment. did he withdraw them; who were the sponsors; what reasons did they give to a Republican President, and why are they not now made public? He withdrew those papers and now withholds them because they prove even more conclusively than has already been proven that he was untrue to his party in 1896 and the ight years that followed. There can be no other reason.

"The only reason stated by Mr. Tucker for expecting this appointment to life office by a Republican President is the fact that Gov. Jones, of Alabama, had shortly before that time been appointed to a Federal judgeship in Alabama.
"He is fortunate in his allusion to Judge Jones. The latter's record is not such as to commend itself to any Democrat in Alabama or Virginia. Jones Supported by Washington.

"In 1896, when Mr. Tucker was distributing Republican campaign literature in Virginia under his frank as a member of Congress, Jones was endeavoring to overthrow the Democratic party in Alabama; and in 1901, as a member of the constitutional convention, he fought against any provision that would enable the white people of Alabama to limit the negro suffrage and thus control the State. He even fought the ratification of the Constitution after it was adopted with a ruptcy. suffrage provision satisfactory to the record to the attention of the President." Judge Samuel W. Williams and John Thompson Brown, candidates for attorney general and commissioner of agriculture, also spoke here to-day. The meeting was presided over by County Chairman Senator George B. Keezell.
